

CONEXA SEARCH

Conexa Search is a national executive search firm that focuses on Human Resources and Sales talent needs, with clients that range from Private Equity firms to Fortune 500 companies.

HOW WE ARE DIFFERENT

01 Retention Focus

As a certified executive coach, Margo offers coaching sessions for each new hire placement as part of the search package. These sessions help to retain employees and deliver a smooth onboarding process.

02 Concierge-Like Service

Conexa Search limits our number of searches to ensure we are offering each client and their candidates the highest level of service and attention. We have an exceptional response time and a high sense of urgency.

03 Been There, Done That

Margo has been the client, led searches, and led a talent acquisition team internally. She brings her wealth of experience from both sides of the table to everything she does with her clients.

04 Candidate Experience

Conexa Search takes your talent brand very seriously and offers a uniquely high-touch and positive experience to your candidates. We think of your candidates like clients too, and that shines through.

"Conexa Search, led by founder Margo Christou, is one of the most customer-centric executive search firms I have worked with. They took the time to understand our unique culture, specific requirements of the roles we were seeking to fill, and worked tirelessly to find the best talent in record time. Their understanding of the broader talent landscape coupled with their attention to detail as well as ease to work with make them an ideal search partner for any organization looking to bring in exceptional talent."
